Documents Required in Support of an E-3 Visa Application

You are required to furnish the following in support of your visa application:

- Confirmation page of the online nonimmigrant visa application form DS-160;
- Appointment confirmation page (if relevant);
- A passport or other travel document valid for at least six months beyond your period of stay in the United States with at least one blank page - the six-month requirement does not apply to United Kingdom passports. For other nationalities, please see <http://dld.bz/ah29g> Note: If the passport is damaged, we recommend that you obtain a new passport before applying for the visa to avoid any delay in the processing of your application;
- One 5 x 5 cm (2" by 2") color photograph taken within the last six months – for further information click here and see our Slideshare presentation;
- Evidence of your status in the United Kingdom if not a U.K. or EU passport holder;
- Evidence of previously issued U.S. visas if not contained in the current passport;
- A job offer letter or other documentation from the prospective United States-based employer establishing that upon entry into the United States you will be engaged in qualifying work in a specialty occupation and that you will be paid the actual or prevailing wage;
- The approved Labor Condition Application, Form ETA 9035E, specified for "E-3 Australia";
- Evidence of the necessary academic or other qualifying credentials. A certified copy of the foreign degree and evidence that it is equivalent to the required U.S. degree could be used to satisfy the "qualifying credentials" requirement. Likewise, a certified copy of a U.S. baccalaureate or higher degree, as required by the specialty occupation, would meet the minimum evidentiary standard. In the absence of an academic or other qualifying credential(s), you may submit evidence of education and experience that is equivalent to the required U.S. degree, and if required
- A certified copy of any required license or other official permission to practice the occupation in the state of intended employment if so required or, where licensure is not necessary to commence employment immediately upon admission, evidence that you will be obtaining the required license within a reasonable time after admission;
- If you have ever been arrested and/or have a criminal conviction, have a medical ineligibility, or have been denied entry into or deported from the United States the documents relating to your situation. Please click on the relevant links for further information.

If your application is successful, you should allow between three to five workdays for the visa to be processed at the end of which, the passport will be handed to the courier company for delivery. Once the courier company is in receipt of your passport, you will be able to track the delivery by going to <http://usvisa-info.com> and signing-in with your user account id.

Reminder: We always recommend that individuals apply for visas well in advance of their proposed date of travel. No assurances regarding the issuance of visas can be given in advance. Therefore, final travel plans or the purchase of non refundable ticket should not be made until a visa has been issued and you are in receipt of the passport.
