

Instructions for Completing the Personal Data Form, VCU-1

The following is a guide to completing the form VCU-1. The form should be completed on- line by filing in the applicable data fields. Handwritten forms will be discarded.

Section One: Fill in this section as completely as possible leaving blank only those fields that do not apply in your case.

Section Two: Fill in this section if the police certificate from the Association of Chief Police Officers (ACPO) states "No Trace" or "No Live Trace" or does not list, in full, your arrests/cautions/convictions.

You are also required to fill in this section if the arrest, conviction or caution took place outside the United Kingdom.

It is important to note that the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act does not apply to U.S. visa law and a spent conviction, regardless of when it may have occurred must be declared when applying for the visa.

Section Three: Fill in this section, if as a result of any conviction, you served a prison sentence.

Section Four: Fill in this section if you have ever been denied entry into the United States. You are required to enclose a copy of the report of the incident, form I-877, if you have one.

Section Five: Fill in this section if you have ever violated the terms of a U.S. visa or the Visa Waiver Program and/or have overstayed the period of time granted by U.S. immigration.

Section Six: Fill in this section if you have ever answered "YES" to any of eligibility questions on the visa application form DS-160 that have not been fully explained in Sections Two to Five. Please review the information you have provided for accuracy
