Getting There
The closest Tube on the Victoria Line is Vauxhall Underground station. The closest rail station is Vauxhall (National Rail code VXH).

From Vauxhall, it takes approximately 10 minutes to walk to the Embassy; proceed from Vauxhall Tube station Exit 1 for a riverside walk or from Exit 4. Alternatively, the Embassy is two stops by bus 156, 344, or 436 from Vauxhall Bus Station, Stop E, to Elm Quay Court.

Use our Walking Map (image, opens in new window) to guide you. Battersea Park rail station. Queenstown Road railway stations are also nearby.

On Arrival
There are two visitor pavilions. Please report to the East Pavilion for Official Visitors and arrive 10-15 minutes prior to your appointment to pass through Security. Note: The South Pavilion is for visa appointments with Consular Services.

Security Screening
At the Official Visitors Pavilion, please report to Security and confirm who you are scheduled to meet. You will be required to produce photo ID (e.g. a passport or photo driver’s license) which will be kept and stored for you during your visit along with any personal items, including any electronic devices, mobile phones/Blackberries/USB flash drives/electronic key fobs etc. Please note, visitors are not allowed to bring personal computers and computing accessories in to the Embassy. Any luggage will also need to be left with Security.

You will be given a visitor’s badge and a ticket (for any personal items left with Security) which you will need to return on exit when collecting your personal items. Your visitor badge must be worn at all times.

Inside the Official Visitors Pavilion you will pass through airport-type security screening for metal detection and any bags that you bring with you will be passed through an X-Ray scanner.

Inside the Embassy
After security screening, you will be directed directly across the courtyard to the main entrance of the Embassy and into the waiting area. You will be collected by someone from the Commercial Service. After your meeting, you will be escorted back to the entrance of the Embassy to collect your photo ID and any personal items left with Security.

If you have any questions prior to your visit, please call Commercial Service reception on + 44 (0) 20 7891 3419
